

ZE LEMNA ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION COMPANY, LTD.
ESTABLISHED IN CHINA

Joint venture between Lemna International and Zhongxingxin Telecom Equipment Ltd.

Minneapolis, Minnesota, USA and Xi'an City, Shaanxi Province, China---Lemna International, Inc. and Zhongxingxin Telecom Equipment Limited (ZE) have formed a joint venture company named ZE Lemna Environmental Protection Co., Ltd. (ZLEP) to address the problem of pollution in China and other parts of Asia.

A world leader in environmentally responsible technology, Lemna has vast experience in environmental projects and holds the rights to technological patents and proprietary technologies for wastewater treatment and solid waste treatment. Zhongxingxin Telecom Equipment Limited is a name known to nearly all Chinese because it is one of the largest companies in the nation. This powerful union combines the equipment manufacturing experience and advantages of ZE with the innovative technologies developed and used by Lemna during its 25-year history.

The President and CEO of Lemna, Mr. Viet Ngo, commented, "This is an important step for Lemna and for ZE and signifies the beginning of a very prosperous relationship. The new company is well-equipped to solve the problems of environmental degradation in China."

The headquarters of ZE Lemna Environmental Protection Company is located in the Xi'an City High-Tech Industrial Development Zone, and is the first joint venture to locate in the High-Tech Zone. The joint venture plans to create the largest environmental protection equipment production facility and R&D base in this High-Tech Zone.

Shaanxi Province in China and the State of Minnesota in the U.S. have had a sister-state relationship for 25 years and have numerous educational and cultural exchanges. The governments of both the U.S. State and the Chinese Province are very pleased with this first commercial exchange, which is expected to bring great benefits to both sides. During a celebration of the 25th anniversary of the sister-state relationship in Minnesota in September 2007, Mr. Tony Lorusso, Director of the Minnesota Trade Office, representative of the Governor of Minnesota and Ms. Wang Xia, Senior Consultant of the Shaanxi Provincial Government, representative of the Governor of Shaanxi Province welcomed the announcement by Ms. Poldi Gerard, Vice President of Lemna International, of the establishment of ZE Lemna Environmental Protection Company.
